DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicants have amended the claims to obviate the rejection of the previous office action. The 102(b) rejection over Heeres et al is hereby withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 35-42 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Terminal Disclaimer

3. The application/patent being disclaimed has been improperly identified since the number used to identify the 3,927,017 being disclaimed is incorrect. The correct number is 6,626,197.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 24, 26, 27 and 30-33 rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-5 and 11-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,626,197.

For reasons see office action dated 4/28/2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

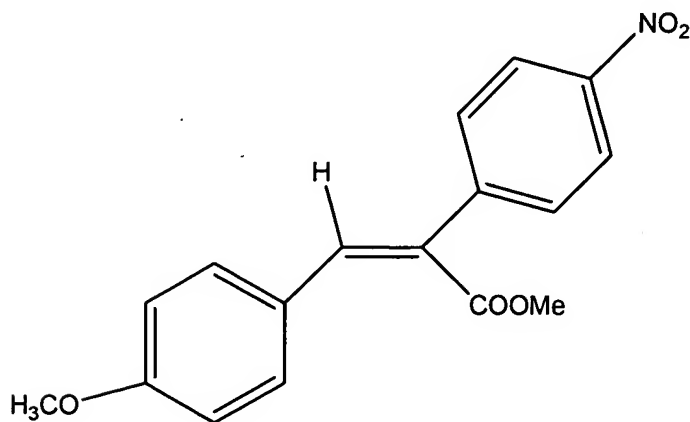

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

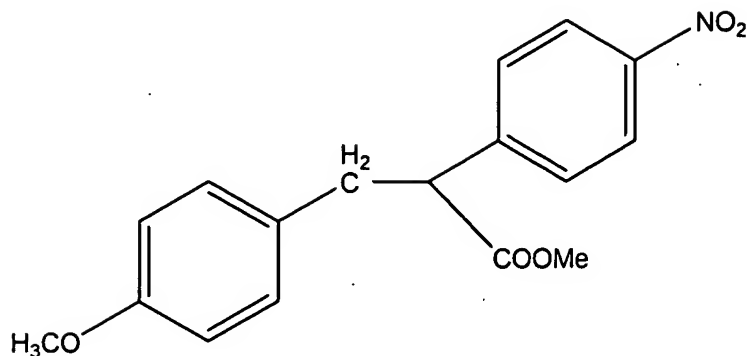

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 24, 26, 27 and 30-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schauble et al (J. Org. Chem., Vol. 39, No. 6, 1974 pages 755-760).

Schauble et al disclosed the following compounds¹:

These compounds anticipate the claims when the dotted line represents a single or double bond; $R_2 = R_3 = R_5 = R_6 = X = H$; $R_1 = C_1\text{-}C_{20}$ alkoxy; $R_4 = NO_2$; and $A = COOR_8$ wherein $R_8 = \text{methyl}$. Please note that the compound itself reads on the pharmaceutical composition claims. The recitation of a pharmaceutical composition for treating diabetes has not been given patentable weight because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).
